Retirees often tell us they miss being "in the know" and want to stay connected to GM in retirement. We've created this web site to do just that. It is intended to keep GM retirees up-to-date with what's happening at the company and to provide easy access to all kinds of information.

Access to this web site is restricted to General Motors U.S. retirees and their surviving spouses. Registration is required to gain access to benefit information, GM news, special Marketplace discounts and offers, vehicle purchase discounts, a directory of retiree clubs across the country, and much, much more.
